A FALSE ATTITUDE.

There seem to be a concerted attempt on the part of certain local contemporaries to place the colored people in an unenviable attitude toward the American people. They are striving to show that the martial spirit and sentiment of patriotism are absolutely wanting in our people. In fact it is charged that we are expressing sentiments which are not only unpatriotic, but are indicative of our desire to see Spain succeed. Of course there are persons and oft-times influential if not just ones, who are always in a sort of trance phantasmagoria in which they are dangerous and everybody who is not white are devils, and who do not realize that the war is over or that the trend of the times points toward the unification of mankind into bonds of brotherhood. Over this class we are inclined to throw the mantle of charity for it is clear that they are fools and cannot be successfully undeceived. They are dreaming their lives away and when they awake they will have been in the esty of the departed, shrouded in oblivion. But with our contemporaries, it is far otherwise. They are living in the present and are its immediate product, not of the best instinct and civilization, not of the best type of citizenship and manhood but of that element which the present unfortunately yields at its expression of the fact that the ancient devilish instinct among men has not yet disappeared from the face of the earth.

It would seem that the motive of these editors is to undo what the best thinkers and philanthropists have succeeded in doing, namely, that of stimulating in the colored man a desire to be in every respect the equal of his white brother in all that pertains to correct life and social and political progress. They cannot gainsay the just claim of the colored man to full recognition is a coordinate factor in the body-politic, for the fact is too patent. They are seeking, however, by misrepresentation and contumely to impress the American people that the colored man is not entitled to the consideration he has hitherto received, on the ground that he displays a dogged disposition to shirk the responsibility of citizenship in his indifference in the present war crisis. They intimate that he is a coward and clamor with hyena-like satisfaction. More than this they are emphatic in their declaration that the colored soldier is not needed except as plain hewers of wood and drawers of water or dirt flingers for fortifications.

Herein lies the milk of the cocoanut. They would not have us take part in this glorious war for the reason that when the war is over, we might claim some of the credit for the victories. Of course everybody with any sense whatever knows that the valor of the colored man needs no defense here; for in every war during the existence of this country he has been called upon and has in every case responded heroically to the call. But our contemporaries are playing upon the prejudices of the thinking class and the ignorance of those who have not had the time or the disposition to read for themselves the history of their country. We here hurl back the lie to those who have had the temerity to charge the colored man with disloyalty or a full share of true Americanism and warn our would be traducers that a base misrepresentation is in its nature reactionary as well as unpatriotic, unjust and un-American. We declare that we are just as true to the cause of liberty and social advancement as any of the editors who are attempting to prejudice the public mind with their editorial hog-wash and predict that the colored man will be at the front when our howling traducers are skulking behind the bulwark of their editorials sanctum or are safely protected by a certificate of substitution. When we go to war we want to go as men and not as servants, as citizens not as mere denizens and panoplied with all the guarantees which characterize the coming soldier. This war is prosecuted in the interest of broad humanity and those editors who are constantly attempting to belittle the colored people are the traitors to the cause of humanity and the enemies of mankind. When the President indicates his desire to have the colored soldier in the field and vouchsafe to him the recognition which the spirit of the times demands our unfriendly editors will be aroused from their swinish trance into realization that the colored man is true to his history and has not merited gratuitous contumely.

OUR SCHOOLS.

The schools are about to close, and we pause to reflect upon their work. Many questions arise at this time. Are the schools, under their present management, calculated to secure the highest ends for which they were founded? Has the curriculum been adapted to the needs of our colored youth? Has sufficient care been displayed in the selection of text-books? Has there been absolute fairness in awarding merit, and in passing students from one grade to another, from the High to the Normal school? Have abuses been corrected? Has the moral discipline been elevated? If these questions can be properly and favorably answered then we may congratulate ourselves that our pupils have passed through such a disciplinary regime as will render them intelligent and useful, and insure for them a sure place amid the activities of the world, while the parents can bless the institution which has wrought such salutary results. If, on the contrary, we cannot answer these questions in the interests of proper education, we have every reason to urge more vigorous and enlightened activity among our educators. Special attention should be called to the selection of suitable text-books, for it is possible to adopt books which are in no way acceptable to our youth, though they may not be objectionable to the whites. Let our trustees look to this and correct errors which on account of indifference or ignorance have crept into our schools.

COMPETENCY AND NOT FAVORITISM.

For one to read from time to time the editorials in the Washington Post, he would naturally conclude that the demand the Negro is making for recognition in the army is based upon favoritism and not competency. The Daily Post would have the world believe that there are not competent Negroes in the United States—competent to be a colonel. We are prepared to name several educated colored men who are thoroughly competent to command any regiment or body of men, and more so than many of the milk-and-water aristocrats and society dudes who have been appointed.

We have been unable to see the consistency of the Post's position. They admit that Negro privates are competent to fight, but Negro officers are not. Where the Post got such an idea we are unable to surmise. We are further informed by the Post that this is a white man's government. Why is this a white man's government any more than any other nationality? The Post, like many white people in authority we know, never see the use of a Negro until he is wanted to be used. The Post might as well satisfy itself to the extent that the Negro was brought here against his will and goes against his will if necessity calls for it. The Post might as well accept the situation: the Negro will be a general or a colonel in the existing war between the United States and Spain.

Tampa is now bereft of its colored soldiers—and what will the town do then, poor thing? We would prescribe an everlasting dose of good sense and strong patriotism to remove the morbid condition of Negrophobia. But, we fear the patient is too far gone. Well, in Florida is a good place to "shuffle off"—flowers are plentiful and cheap.

Richard T. Greener, the political failure, will remain in the United States until July. It would be wise for him to start away, for he will never be superintendent of the colored public schools.

NOT SATISFIED.

R. T. Greener is a candidate for superintendent of the Public Schools. Mr. Greener was at one time principal of the High School from which position the trustees removed him. If he were not competent to conduct a high school, we would like to know what he would do with the position of superintendent? Mr. Greener is not a success as a teacher. THE BEE advises him to take his baggage and go to Russia, the place President McKinley sent him, before someone else is appointed. The people in this city would not tolerate Mr. Greener as superintendent of the Public Schools. He must be dissatisfied with his new post.

This is an opportune time to call the attention of the picnic and excursion fends to the fact that in a number of cases, picnics and excursions are designed for the purpose of rendering the least pleasure for the greatest amount of money. Moreover, what we spend for doubtful pleasure in summer, will be much needed for bread in winter. It should be our part to imitate the wise provision of the ant, and not the giddiness and foolhardiness of the Kansas plague.

If the Republican party had more men after the type of Capt. Castle, the auditor for the P. O. D., the traditions and principles of republicanism would be more thoroughly accentuated. This officer is a man after the pattern of Lincoln, Sumner and Grant, and God grant that he may live long and his kind rapidly increase.

The appointment of Miss Mary E. Wilson, of South Washington, a normal school graduate, by Mrs. M. Church Terrell, is worthy and deserving. One thing can be said to the credit of Mrs. Terrell, she has certainly looked out for home interests. We congratulate Miss Wilson and thank Mrs. Terrell.

A NOBLE WOMAN GONE.

The death of Miss Mamie E. Richardson, the amiable and accomplished sister of Dr. Geo. H. Richardson, of this city, takes away a most brilliant star, a loving sister and a dutiful daughter. This was a most sudden and unexpected death. To lose one so young, so gentle and so good, brings sadness and desolation to the household which her presence made so cheerful. THE BEE extends to Dr. Richardson its heartfelt sympathy. Miss Richardson died in Cleveland, O., last week. The young lady was only sick a short time. Dr. Richardson, who was telegraphed, arrived five minutes before she died and one minute before she became unconscious.

The National Educational Association which will convene here soon, will be called upon to demonstrate the utility of our educational institutions as a means of eradicating prejudice, and a leveler of caste distinction. The schools of Boston will be entered in the lists with the proscriptive schools of the South, and a contest for the supremacy of ideas must necessarily be strong and interesting. We earnestly look for favorable revelations, but—

It is a long way from a mere laborer on fortifications to the command of a company or a brigade; but, unless all signs fail, we will get there, prejudiced Negrophobists and weak conservatives to the contrary notwithstanding.

Col. M. M. Parker is the National Republican Committeeman for the District of Columbia.

Prof. H. M. Brown, teacher of physics, will have an exhibition.

The trustees of the public schools should define the position of the supervising principals.

There will be a few changes in the schools next year.

Major O. A. Fleetwood is being strongly pushed for Lieut. Colonel in the army.

The colored colonel may be needed if Germany carries out her threats.

Secretary Gage has made an appeal to the American people for money to carry on the war with Spain.

UNIVERSAL BROTHERHOOD.

Men are born and always continue free and equal in respect to their rights. Civil distinction therefore cannot and should be founded only on public utility. The end of all political association is the preservation of the natural and imprescriptible rights of our man and these rights are liberty, property, security and resistance of oppression. The nation is essentially the source of all sovereignty, nor can any individual, or leaders of men be entitled to any authority which is not expressly derived from it. The emigrants to New England, under the main impulse of a spirit of religion, by a desire to enjoy in peace, their mode of worship, and to spread the gospel; the emigrants to New York and Virginia chiefly to render the influence of a spirit of commerce by a love of adventure, or the hope of opening new paths of trade and the founders of Maryland, Pennsylvania, Georgia by the ambition to form new states and all the colonists, desired to benefit their condition.

There are certain evidences in the open register of life today pointing to a danger as deep and as wide as the social influence itself, a danger which if not presently checked and destroyed will drive the world into one of those cataclysms with which historians round their sonorous periods and in which all the gains of a system of civilization governed by a slow and safe economy are lost in riot and the luxury of social irresponsibility. We say that science is broadening our vision and enlarging our knowledge of ways and means and so it is, but we are growing wiser with our knowledge? By what criterion shall we measure in order to discover our real proportion? The past, always the past. Men forget as it is their won't what their fathers' own achievements but history forgets not in her vast treasure house is governed, all the fruits and seeds of civilization; at her awful tribunal men await in silent expectation, face to face with their deeds; she assigns to each his place, apportion to each his reward according to dictionary of the French Academy, history is a specimen of a very numerous species; and such a definition would make it consist of exceptional things, of celebrated or notorious events of the lives and actions of great and exalted men of conspicuous achievements in war and politics, in science and art in religion and literature, but this is a narrow and superficial conception of history is made up of what is little as well as of what is great of what is common  strange  counted mean as  counted noble, Dr. Arnold's definition, "history is; the biography of society," has been often praised nor altogether undeservedly, for it directs attention to the fact, all history records with biography in sup-ing in its subject a certain unity of life work, and end. The history of English-America began with the three slave-trading voyages of John Hawkins made in the years of 1592-1564 and 1567 nothing that Englishmen had done in connection with America previously to those voyages had any result worth recording.

In the inspiring pamphlet of James Otis of Boston, Mass., the 1st against what was known as the Declaratory "Resolve the stamp Act" he held there could be no prescription old enough to supercede the law of nature and the grant of God Almighty who had given all men a right to be free, that nothing but life and liberty were hereditary, that in solving practically the grand political problem, the first and simple principle must be equality and the power of the whole, there never did nor never can exist a parliament of any description or generation of men in any country possessed of the right or the power of building or controlling posterity to the end of time, it is the living and not the dead that are to be accommodated when man ceases to be, his wants ceases with him and having no longer any participation in the concerns of this world he has no longer any power or authority in directing who shall be its governors or how its government shall be organized or how administered and as we look back to those auspicious days, we bless the Almighty that he imparted to our fore-fathers, so large a measure of his own wisdom that he breathed into their councils such a spirit of calm results hopeful zeal, that he put into their mouths words of such comprehensive truth that through all time as each successive as each generation draws nearer to the laws of universal brotherhood it will but develop more fully the principle by which the United States of America first took their place among the nations.

Heaven hath indeed smiled upon us, but some drops of bitterness have been kindly intermingled in the cup of joy for the draught should intoxicate and lull us to sleep, among the many errors America has been guilty of, few have been greater or attended more fatal consequences to its citizens, none leaves a more conspicuous blight upon the country because of a direct, active repudiation of those principles which history from the colonial period to the present advises us, are the principles upon which this government is founded, the rights which are granted, guaranteed and given every man even if he be of foreign birth, the enjoyment of liberty and freedom and protection, than does the lack of respect shown the American Negro as a citizen, a man and a gentleman, his exclusion from a participation in rights for which he fought, for which he has given his life in contest for the same rights which a government by the people, for the people, of the people has spread world-wide are his, that helps support by taxation, that he honors, respects, yeal whose time is given his country's service officially and otherwise and even though he bears the colors of that country, "Old glory," "The Stars and Stripes," of "The land of the free, the home of the brave," on land or sea that country has not and does not and will not respect such citizens as citizens should be respected, if America would show its respect for character, its appreciation for man, its regard for justice, no better place than home, no better time can be had than now, to practically demonstrate that belief and opinion for which humanity in its cries because of destruction by lynching in the south the non-security in travel, or home and the marked and distinct lines of prejudice drawn in this country upon an American, a citizen, a tax-payer, because of his complexion, his desecration, even in the National Capital city and the demand for justice and equality go forth.

It is surprising that after repeated proofs of the same evils, the result of the same line of treatment, action, a continuation should be allowed and hence no longer can be ended when we see the independence of the country after standing every shock from without endangered by eternal enemies. Is it possible America should suffer men, who are guilty of this and a thousand other calamities which this country has experienced to live among us? To live among us, did I say? Age! do they not move in our assemblies? do they not insult us with their abusive conception of preference? Do they not hold traitorous assemblies of their own? Do they not walk the streets at noon-day and taste the air of liberty? In short, do they not enjoy every privilege of a brave soldier who has split his blood, or honest patriot who has sacrificed his all in a right cause? Yes, and to the eternal shame of America, be it spoken they do.—W. A. C.

A WORTHY OBJECT.

Chicago, June 10th, 1898.
Editor of The Bee:

A movement has been set on foot by some of the citizens of Chicago and also a number of prominent citizens throughout the United States to organize an association to be known as "The National Colored Soldiers and Sailors Monument Association of the United States." The aim, object and purpose of this association is to erect a monument in one of the public parks in the city of Washington, D. C., in honor of the memory of the colored soldiers and sailors who fell in the war of 1861 and also those thirty brave colored sailors who lost their lives on the battleship "Maine" in Havana Harbor in 1898.

I am of the opinion that this would be one of the greatest events of the age before the nineteenth century passes away. We as a race of people owe this to the memory of those brave heroes who sacrificed their lives in defense of national honor.

Will you co-operate with us in such a laudable movement? Let me hear from you soon.

Yours respectfully,
John G. Jones,
191 Clark St.
Room 11.

ROSLYN, VIRGINIA.

CLOSING OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The public school of Roslyn, Va., was closed on last Friday night with very appropriate exercises. The teacher Miss Ella M. Boston of Washington, D. C., deserves much credit for the faithful performance of her duty. She has worked hard to bring the school up to its original status and has succeeded in doing so. The citizens of this place are much pleased with Miss Boston's work and are very anxious for her return next fall, as she has done more for the uplifting of the school than any other teacher.

The exercises by the school were excellently performed, consisting of solos, instrumental and vocal, recitations, duets, dialogues and a tamboourine drill by the girls, which concluded this part of the program. The second part of the program was concluded by Prof. Richards of the Law Dept. of Howard University. It consisted of an address by Rev. Lo-max, of Va., and addresses by Dr. Walter H. Brooks, and T. L. Jones, both very prominent men of the D. C. The ladies of the school prepared a handsome table for their many friends which was undoubtedly enjoyed by the host. Among those present were Rev. Theo. Williams, Drs. Pierre and Daniels, Mr. Holmes, J. H. Henson, A. F. T. Boston, A. D. Burrell, Messrs. Gaines, Watson and others.

YOU ARE RIGHT.

From the Rising Son.

Editor Chase has known the vicissitude of editing a negro newspaper for seventeen years. If he is not gray, if he is not a pessimist, if his digestion has not been permanently impaired, then has nature been exceedingly kind to him, and the possession of a robust constitution is indeed of vast importance in conducting a negro newspaper.

OFFICE-SEEKERS.

From the Atlanta Age.

The Washington Bee rises to remark that "Register Lyons has a host of friends. They are office-seekers pure and simple." Mr. Lyons would do well to cut this excerpt out of the paper and paste it in his hat. He has stalwart friends here in Georgia that will keep him a standing constituency as long as he eschews the meshes laid for him by the designing malcontents who through the streets and departments at Washington. Bruce is the only colored republican that ever went to Washington and accepted the head of a department that did not find himself at the end of his term a political emancipate. Beware of the office-seeker, brother Lyons.

Yes brother Pledger, a man has lots of friends when he is on top. Men seek him more than at any other time. Look out for Judas.

HE IS ALL RIGHT.

The Bee is mistaken. Capt. Lyons' fence is never falling, therefore needed no repairing. Instead of falling, his fences have been made stronger. He has the full confidence of the party men throughout the state. This is heartily attested by the resolution commending him for his ability and loyalty to the president for appointing him to his present position. Capt. Lyons is all right and the republicans of Georgia honor him. He is stalwart.

We know that Capt. Lyons is all right, brother Deveaux. You know when state committees are called to convene, it means something. Capt. Lyons has fences to fix up. The Tribune, to the contrary notwithstanding.

THE LYCEUM CLOSES.

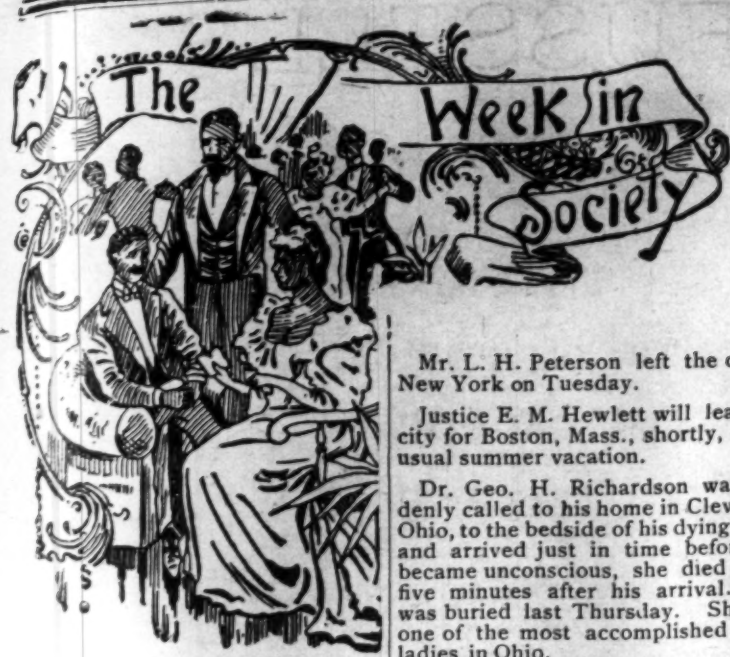

INTERESTING EXERCISES.

On Sunday last the Congressional Lyceum closed for the summer. The executive committee presented a splendid program which was highly pleasing to the large audience present. Miss Mattie R. Bowen presided. On taking the chair, she delivered a most remarkable and pointed address on "opportunity." Brief addresses were made by Mrs. Hicks, Messrs. Peters, Moore and others. The solos by Misses Annie Payne and Cora Richardson were well rendered and their remarkable sweet voices were the subject of general favorable comment. Elizabeth B. Brown's "Mother and Poet." The sound of a drum in the distance suggested to the audiences that the little Miss at the piano was Blanche L. Coleman and that the "Balls of Manassas" was on. For ten minutes the audience sat in almost breathless silence and heard a medley of the national airs mingled artistically with booming cannon and cracking of musketry. At the conclusion of this musical battle, she was given an ovation.

A section of Prof. Thomas Washington's Orchestra was present and aided greatly in the singing. President W. C. Martin then rose and after thanking the ladies of the auxiliary, the various choirs which had attended the lyceum and all who had from time to time visited and aided in the exercises, announced the close until September next. The acting president then called for order waving the gavel, the audience rose, Dr. America, and the benediction par. Cypress of John Westley conducted the first year's work of the National Congressional Lyceum.

A NEW BILLIARD HALL.

One of the most unique billiard saloons in this city is kept by Mr. Sampson Taylor, 1206 Pa. avenue n. w. Mr. Taylor is one of the best known men in this city who is an up-to-date authority on sports. These billiard tables contain the most modern made tables. If you want an enjoyable time at billiard and pool, don't fail to go to 1206 Pa. avenue, northwest.

Mr. L. H. Peterson left the city for New York on Tuesday.

Justice E. M. Hewlett will leave the city for Boston, Mass., shortly, on his usual summer vacation.

Dr. Geo. H. Richardson was suddenly called to his home in Cleveland, Ohio, to the bedside of his dying sister, and arrived just in time before she became unconscious, she died within five minutes after his arrival. She was buried last Thursday. She was one of the most accomplished young ladies in Ohio.

Mrs. Gertrude Merritt Payne is out again.

Mrs. Sarah Pleasant is able to be out again.

A PIONEER STEAMBOATMAN.

Capt. L. J. Woollen, the pioneer steamboatman opened Collingwood Beach about ten years ago with the steamer Pilot Boy and by steadily attending to business together with unlimited push, he has now one of the finest excursion steamers on the Potomac River. There is nothing finer nor faster than the River Queen, with her large carrying capacity and fitted up in the latest and most luxurious style. Nottley Hall also has been greatly improved by the building of a new wharf and dredging the channel so that the largest boat can make the wharf without any difficulty. The grounds, with a large dancing pavilion, ten-pin alley, shooting gallery, flying horses and an excellent pony track form a collection of attractions unsurpassed by any place of amusement on the river.

Mr. John Duvall, the enterprising restaurateur at 207 L street N. W., opened his dancing pavilion and summer garden Wednesday evening, with throngs in attendance. The Thomas Washington orchestra discoursed excellent music to which the devotees of the art tersely lent themselves with delighted zest and on every face could be seen "enjoy yourselves," and all seemed anxious to attain that end. At a late hour the guests slowly and reluctantly dispersed warmly congratulating their host and unanimously adding the assurance that at Duvall's you can always "get your money's worth." The garden is now open each evening of the week and Mr. Duvall is intending to make still further improvements to add to the comfort and pleasure of his visitors and patrons.

Messrs. West Dent and Norval Cooper are hard at it doing tandem work and will doubtless spring some surprises at the next racing meet. They are two promising riders.

CLAIMS HE WAS ROBBED.

Henry McCray, a citizen of Johnston, Pa., when the great disaster occurred some time ago, arrived in the city a few days ago and made his way to the office of Lawyer John Ricks, and complained that he had been robbed by some white men at his home in Virginia, to the amount of $4,320. Mr. McCray said that the way his money was stolen was three white men had him arrested and locked up, declaring that he was crazy. He was arrested by the sheriff of Newport News, Warick Co., Va., and he asserts that it was without cause or provocation. He also claims that he would be locked up one day and let out the next. Money belonging to Justice Stephen West was also stolen by these men.

Mr. McCray called to see District Attorney Davis on Thursday morning to complain about his mail being intercepted. He said that his letters are detained purposely and that he proposes to have satisfaction. His arm was broken by the mob after his arrest, and notwithstanding the five arrests made, not one thing was proven against him.

ROYAL BLUE TRAINS.

Between Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

In September last, railway officials from London were sent to America, to get ideas on the railway passenger service of the leading lines in this country, and in their official report, which was printed in the London Times in January, it was stated that the "Royal Blue Line" series of magnificent passenger trains, running between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, lead the world for quick and exquisite train service. The "Royal Blue Line" service consists of nine elegant passenger trains a day in each direction between the cities named above. They are the finest and fastest trains in the world. Their equipment was built especially for the service by the Pullman Company, and includes every modern convenience known for the comfort of passengers. The trains are vestibuled from end to end, and hauled by the strongest and fastest locomotives in the United States.

The exquisite day coaches of these trains are worthy of special note. They are beautifully upholstered, each containing a washroom and smoking compartment. The parlor cars are the most palatial ever built, being fully seventy-three feet long. In addition to this service, three new parlor cars were added in April, and are the first of this kind ever run; they are richly upholstered and ornamented throughout in most beautiful designs. A ladies' retiring-room is provided in one end of the car. This room, which is six feet square, is furnished with a beautiful dresser with large mirror and a number of drawers. On each side of it are upholstered corner seats. In another corner is a bookcase and stationary washstand. The room was designed for especial comfort of ladies, who have always claimed men had the best of it when travelling. The usual smoking apartment, however, is at the opposite end of the car.

The dining cars are operated by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and especial attention is given to the menu. Every delicacy is served in season, and the service is unsurpassed. In addition to the already perfect service of "Royal Blue Trains" mentioned above, there will be put into service May 15 a "Royal Limited" train, which will leave New York at 1.00 P. M., making the run to Washington in FIVE hours. Returning, the "Royal Limited" will leave Washington at 3.00 P. M., arriving New York at 8.10 P. M. The "Royal Blue Line" will then boast of three trains which make this extraordinary fast time between Washington and New York, which has never been attained by any other line. The "Royal Blue Trains" between Baltimore and Washington make the run in FORTY-FIVE MINUTES—the fastest regular service ever attained between the two cities.

The terminal at New York City is the most convenient for all points in Greater New York. Passengers can land at South Ferry (Whitehall Terminal), where, under the same roof, connection is made with the elevated lines of the second, Third, Sixth and Ninth Avenues, and the Broadway, Lexington and Columbus Avenue Cables. All the Brooklyn Ferries also start from this point, and by taking

FLAG DAY.

THE TRUSTEES REFUSED THE REQUEST OF SHAW'S COMMAND.

Mr. R. D. Goodman, commander of R. G. Shaw command, U. V. A., addressed a letter to the colored schools May 4, to grant permission to that organization to give object lessons on the flag, bugle, gun and sword, to consume about 20 minutes in each room. Supt. Cook submitted Mr. Goodman's letter to the board of school trustees, who promptly returned the same refusing the request. Supt. Cook, in his letter to the commander, said that such exercises would interfere with the work of the schools. Commander Goodman is of the opinion that he has not been treated kindly.

A representative has ascertained from the school authorities that no disrespect was meant to the commander, but simply the work of the schools could not be interfered with at this time of year.

HIGH WATER MARK.

The Washington Bee is fast reaching high water mark in editorial excellence. Its recent issues are claiming the attention of men of thought. It is pleasant to see our race journals take high ground and rise above personalities in the discussion of public questions. The Bee seems to be leading the way from the Nation's Capitol. Brother Chase is bold and able, as well as aggressive. We wish the Bee Godspeed upon its new departure.

POINT
IDE

Emma: You have been complimented for your excellent work. Strict discipline is what is necessary.

Estelle: A young lady should be well supplied with escorts. Never depend on the company of one male.

Ohio: Your letter was too indiscreet. It is in bad taste to use vulgar terms or slang; always display good manners.

Lullie: It was Fred Douglass who first offered a son to Major Andrews. History of the negro soldiers will enlighten you.

Etta: Old coals will kindle some times. Fond recollections of the past generally recalls to one's mind loving events.

E. P. Do not expose your ignorance to young men. They often take advantage of it.

M. P. Dressing is an art and few girls seem to appreciate the fact. You should always dress with taste.

D. T. Nothing is more distasteful than to see a crowd of girls assemble gossiping about frivolous matters. Useful and beneficial topics should always occupy the mind of a young girl.

S. T. Too much familiarity often leads to disagreements and unpleasantness. Never allow yourself to get too familiar with any one.

B. M. It is generally the rule. One is very seldom sought after until some thing is needed. Some girls are deceitful.

I. T. Society should be polished and polite. "A loud laugh portrays a vacant mind."

Ola: You should have resented the insult at once. A pretentious man will pretend that he has great interest in your welfare.

Essie: Take my advice and never go on a common excursion. I am opposed to girls going on excursions unaccompanied by parents.

N. B. You did the right thing to refuse wines offered you. The manner was vulgar as well as the place.

C. W. Such a person who pretends to be so many should not be trusted.

E. S. It makes no difference whether you were engaged to him or not. Circumstances have separated you. The friendship that once existed should not be tolerated, if you have accepted an engagement ring from another. Give him to understand in plain English that his company is not acceptable.

D. H. If you girls will permit long courtship, it is your fault. I have a poor opinion of a young lady who would ask for a present from a gentleman to whom she is engaged.

E. Never place yourself under obligations to any one. It is better to be poor than to place yourself in such a position.

Jeannette: My opinion is that your manners were rather rude. Sedateness and polite manners will win all the time.

Minnie: You should always attend to business as you are directed. Never talk your business to other people.

Marie: You can be pleasant always, but be positive in your business relations.

It is quite easy for one to misjudge your meaning.

L. E. S. Your selection should be appreciated, I am sure. You should remember, however, that an intelligent girl should not marry below her station, nor should she be intellectually a man's inferior.

Y. M. One's house affairs should not be exposed to the neighborhood.

Talkative girls are not to be trusted with secrets. My advice is to confide in but a few.

M. B. C. Never attempt to look upon one with contempt. You never know when you will be compelled to go to him for aid and succor.

E. O. I would advise you to be honest in your dealings with your associates. Nothing commends a young woman more than honesty. You must be a positive character. When a young man loses confidence in you, it would be better to find another companion. A young lady that commands the respect of any man is a jewel.

Flirtation: In reply to your letter of recent date, I would suggest that you discontinue such practice. A few men have confidence in a young girl who obtains her acquaintance by flirtation. No refined and cultured young lady will carry on flirtation with any man, no matter who he may be. I have but little faith in office holders. A majority of them spend their money before it is drawn.

Anna: It is in bad taste to allow a young man to meet you at a place of amusement. He should certainly take one evening off to escort you to the place of amusement.

Punch cards: No young lady should take punch cards to solicit money. It is vulgar and no lady of refinement and education would be guilty of such impropriety, money for churches should be collected differently. The lady will either be insulted or her intentions may be misconstrued.

SECRET ORDERS.

The following memorial was adopted by the United Supreme Council of A. A. S. R., held in Chicago, Ill., May 30, 1898. In memory of the late John A. Seaton, 33°. The uncertainty of human life has again been readily demonstrated in the death of our much esteemed and illustrious brother John A. Seaton, 33° of Alexandria, Va., and a member of this grand body, also of Robert J. Fletcher Consistory of the A. A. S. R. of Alexandria, Va. His private life was pure and unostentatious and his home was the ideal of all his attributes. His regards for men and things was the grandest conception of man. He held a high place in the hearts of the people everywhere; his admiration for the order of the A. A. S. R. was deep and true and he devoted himself with zeal and fidelity to promote its interest. He was laid to rest at his old home in Virginia with grand masonic honors of the A. A. S. R., and with marked tribute of respect and affection from a large concourse of distinguished masons and fellow citizens.

Resolved, that this United Supreme Council of the A. A. S. R., in special session with profound regret and sorrow record the death of our esteemed friend and co-worker, John A. Seaton, 33 degree.

Resolved, that we extend to his beloved wife and family our sincere sympathy and condolence for their great affliction and that we mourn with them in their great loss, which has also deprived this grand body and the community, where he resided of a grand and good man, a brilliant mason and a christian gentleman.

Resolved, that these resolutions be entered upon our records and a copy of the same be sent to the widow of the deceased and Ill. brother. Officially J. G. Jones, 33, and adopted May 30th 1898.

Es SOLOMAN ARIKUM.

The Arabs before Mohammed fasted; Hoseyn the grand son of the prophet was slain at Kubela, after the session of the Temple, the traditional banquet followed, (eighty people fed on a few barley loaves and a fat of butter. He fed 1000 people on one kid and a sack of barley. Miracle of Mohammed.) The Lu Lu Band then rendered the following musical program, viz: The Battle at Manila, Serenade to Robert G. Dewey, Call to Order, Prayer before the Battle, Victory of the Stars and Stripes. All Hail to Admiral George Dewey of our Navy.

The Ill. R. B. Robinson, 33°, of Magnus Temple, has been selected to respond to welcome address at the Imperial Council of A. A. O. N. M. S., which will convene in Philadelphia in September 1898.

June 8th 1898. Sir James Griggs who has been a mason over fifty years died at Alexandria, Va., the deceased joined Alexandria Washington Lodge No. 22, (The lodge which Washington was a member of in the year 1846,) also Mt.
